translated:

My name is Nation. I am involved in Beaverton's Relay For Life. Every year since I was born I raised money for cancer research. The people I know who had cancer are my uncle Dick, Lorraine, my Grandma, my uncle Mark, my Nana's friends Mary and Jackie. I sold bears out of Thriftway. I walked laps at the Relay For Life. We made cotton candy to sell at our spot. I want to help cure cancer again so no one else dies. I know the people who died are in heaven.
